FRANCE GIVEN CONTROL OF SARRE VALLEY MINE REGION

Responsibility For War Is Dealt With In Seventh Chapter.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, May 5.—It is now certain, according to the French press, that the treaty of peace will be solemnly handed to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German foreign minister by Premier Clemenceau at Versailles on Thursday afternoon.

The contents of the first five chapters of the treaty have already been outlined, dealing with the preamble, German colonies, territory changes, German colonies and the military and naval and aerial features of the pact. The sixth chapter will define the status of prisoners of war and the seventh will concern the responsibilities of the former emperor and other Germans for the war. The eighth and ninth chapters will be devoted to phases of the reparations problem and financial clauses. The tenth will deal with economic clauses, the eleventh with ports, railroads and water communications; the twelfth will concern international labor legislation; the thirteenth will embrace guarantees and the fourteenth will contain general clauses dealing with ratification.

Marcel Hulin of the Echo de Paris learns that France will get absolute control of the Sarre valley and a guarantee for their exploitation. He says that the president of the administrative council will be a Frenchman and will probably have executive powers.

BELGIANS DECIDE TO ACCEPT PEACE TREATY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Brussels, May 5.—The Belgian government has decided to sign the treaty of peace, which was discussed at a crown council held here last night, it was announced.

The council met at the palace at 8 o'clock and continued in session until midnight. Paul Hymans, minister of foreign affairs and head of the Belgian delegation at the peace conference, speaking for himself and his colleagues, Emil Vanderveelde and M. Vanderveelde, who remained in Paris, completely outlined the situation and gave a review of the peace terms. He expressed the opinion that the treaty as it now stands gave honorable and satisfactory terms to Belgium and recommended that it should be signed. The council unanimously endorsed M. Hymans' view but was equally unanimous in expressing the opinion that the attention of the powers should be drawn to the financial and economic situation in Belgium and the necessity that the treaty assure Belgium of complete support looking to the economic restoration. The council was further of the opinion that the allies should be asked to support the initiation of negotiations with Holland regarding the settlement of the question of the freedom of the Scheldt and the waterways of east Belgium.

The Ford car of George Martin of Newark. The Martin machine was badly damaged. The complaint was made by Martin.

Goodin and Martin were returning home from Newark when the crash of the Ford car, two miles east of Granville, scraped a Dodge car bound east and which did not stop. The two men were in a Ford car and the Martin car following the Dodge was struck in the rear. There were six people in the Ford and fortunately none was injured. The fender of the car, lights, wind shield and axle were broken. The wind shield of the Ford was also broken and one of the occupants had a cash cut in his forehead.

In the meantime a half hundred cars had driven up and blocked the road way. One of these cars was a Buick touring car belonging to Frank Fox of this city who was returning home from a visit with friends at Alexandria. Some one backed into his car and badly bent the fender and caused other trouble.

Goodin and Hancock were taken to Granville and gave bond for their appearance before Mayor C. D. Coons Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Two More Airships and

(Associated Press Telegram)
St. John's, Newfoundland, May 5.—Another British team of aspirants for the £25,000 prize for the first flight across the Atlantic from England to Newfoundland, left today for the island. The team, consisting of Captain Alcock, pilot, and Lieutenant Brown, navigator, are on the steamship Mauretania, having left Liverpool, May 3, and their machine, a Vickers Vimy bomber plane, will follow soon on another vessel.

Advises said also that the Handley-Page machine, another contestant, and its crew have left Liverpool on the steamship Disher for the island. The final destination being Halifax, where the start is to be made. The Disher is due here May 11.

Meanwhile, Frederick P. Raynham and Harry G. Hawker, their rivals, were waiting in England in order to "hop off" were uncertain this morning whether they would start overseas today. Bright skies and a northwest wind made good flying conditions early in the day, but there were indications the breeze would spring to the south by afternoon. Reports from over the Atlantic were slow in arriving.

REFUSE 48-HOUR WEEK SCHEDULE

Union Employees of Willys
Overland Auto Factory
Vote to Observe Old
Hours.

Toledo, May 5.—Following a mass meeting Sunday, 1500 union employees of the Willys-Overland company, who asked raises in wages totaling over $2,000 a year, refused to abide by the 48-hour week plan announced by Vice President Clarence A. Earle as operative beginning today.

Under Earle's plan, the men would take the first five working days of each week at 48 hours, putting in eight hours and 26 minutes daily, and stopping at noon on Saturday, after five hours work.

The men said they would quit at 3:30 p.m. today, despite threats that they would be discharged if they did so.

The acute situation was recognized by both Earle and Walter Starnes, business agent of the machinists' union, and a conference of union officials and company heads was called. The move today heads an announcement Friday by Earle that I. W. W. agitators had been circulating literature printed in Toledo, among the employees, asking them to take a rest.

Under the Willys 48-hour plan, starting June 1, 1919, was distributed to employees April 23, covering three months' work and representing a bonus of between 4 cents an hour and 8 percent of the wage.

About 3000 unorganized employees are expected to accept the 48-hour week plan.

GERMANS DON'T LIKE DELAYS AT VERSAILLES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Sunday, May 4.—The delays in the peace negotiations are not being welcomed in official circles in Berlin, although the general public does not seem to be complaining having become accustomed to the slow procedure. From the German standpoint the situation has been aggravated by the breakdown of the two direct wires between Berlin and Versailles showing transmission.

Orlando Sends Long
Message to Paris Council
Saturday.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Sunday, May 4.—(Havas) long telegram from Premier Orlando of Italy was received last night by the Council of Foreign Ministers. No information will be given as to the contents of this communication until the allied governments have made cognizant of its contents.

The Austrian delegates who come to Paris to negotiate the treaty between their country and the allies met at Vienna Saturday.

The status of Italy as one of the five great powers has been brought into question by her withdrawal from the peace conference and it is this status which is proving a powerful lever in inducing Italy to accept the invitation of the Council of Three to resume her place at the peace table. The treaty of peace makes repeated reference to the five great powers as final authority in regulating many subjects and this provision would have to be changed to the great powers in case Italy remained out of the conference. Problems incident to the disposition of the German colonies are left by the treaty to the great powers, so that if Italy does not resume her place the treaty would be voided by her refusal to accept a mandatory.

The text of the treaty has been delivered to the printers with the exception of some details which are to be revised when the complete printed draft is ready. Owing to the doubts as to Italy's status, the protocol of the treaty will be prepared in two forms one including Italy as a signatory and the other omitting her. Both these forms and the entire text of the treaty will be printed tomorrow.

President Wilson today expressed his belief to a member of the American delegation that the delivery of the treaty to the Germans could be made Tuesday afternoon, but the ceremony probably will go over until a later day to give the Italians time to return and allow time for the drafting of the remaining questions concerning Belgium. Thus far the printed text of the treaty does not include the provision on the responsibility of former Emperor William and the other matters for which the methods to be followed for their trials. This may be inserted at the last moment.

The executive committee which will launch the League of Nations will meet tomorrow. President Wilson or Colonel E. M. House will represent the United States; Lord Robert Cecil will appear for England; Stephen Pichon for France; Premier Pichon for Greece; the Spanish ambassador for Spain and Dr. Epitacio Pessoa for Brazil. Italy will not be represented. The organization of the league will be perfected, many committees appointed and the treaty will be ready for the initial meeting of the league at Washington next October.

Those close to President Wilson say that June 1 will without doubt be the date of the assembling of the extra session of congress.

The determination of the conference to begin the negotiation of a peace treaty with Austria immediately following the delivery of the treaty to the Germans has been made known to Italy. It is expected the Austrians will arrive toward the middle of May and plans for their accommodation at St. Germain are being made by the French authorities.

Whether Hungary will be asked to join the treaty will depend upon the outcome of the present disorders there. It is said that the Austrian treaty will be signed by the end of the month. The boundaries of states newly formed from the old empire. The Bulgarian and Turkish treaties will follow but the time for summoning the delegates from those nations has not as yet been fixed.

It will probably arrive in Columbus for the grand final parade Saturday morning and will then be sent to Sherman for demobilization. Under the new plan of demobilization the men of the 15th probably will be discharged and sent to their homes within 48 hours of the time they are received here.

COAL SHORTAGE STOPS FOE MINE SWEEPERS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Sunday, May 4.—The German mine sweepers which have been repairing the fairways leading to the North Sea ports used by the American food ships have been forced to quit operations because of a coal shortage, a committee of the Prussian diet has been informed by Food Commissioner Schmitt.

The outlook for the immediate future as regards the food question, however, is not unfavorable, the commissioner stated as the supplies that are coming in are permitting of the gradual amplification of the official rations.

The town of wheat the committee announced would hold out until the next harvest but the present bread rations could not be increased. There is a market improvement in the supplies of fish. The potato crop however, is compromising the commissioner added. There is fear of a sugar shortage, he also stated because of a lack of workers and fertilizers for best growing.

BELGIUM TO ASK FURTHER RELIEF FROM THE ALLIES

Decides to Sign Treaty and Press Case Before the Peace Meeting.

NATION WANTS NAVIGATION RIGHTS ON THE SCHELD

Printed Draft of Peace
Treaty May Be Finished
Today.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Belgium will sign the treaty of peace in spite of the feeling at Brussels that the financial, economic and territorial aspects of the pact are not satisfactory. A meeting of the crown council was held at Brussels Sunday night and after the terms of peace had been outlined by Paul Hymans, the head of the Belgian delegation at the peace conference it was decided that the treaty would be signed.

In the meantime efforts will be made to impress upon the allies the seriousness of the situation in Belgium and to gain support in the conduct of negotiations with regard to the navigation on the Scheldt river and the waterways of eastern Belgium.

The printed draft of the treaty will be completed today and it is believed that it will be presented Thursday. Minor details will be mentioned but cleared and Italy will be given a chance to resume her place in the conference.

There seems to be indication that some arrangement for Italy to participate in the ceremony at Versailles will be made. The printed draft of the treaty has been received in Paris from Premier Orlando but its contents will not be made public until the conferences of the allied governments have had an opportunity to discuss.

Austria's delegation to the conference, as reported by Paris, is expected to arrive at the peace conference at Vienna and it probably will reach Paris soon after the Germans have received the treaty prepared for their country. The decision on the part of the conference to summon Austrians is expected to have some influence upon the attitude of the Italians as well as the fact that Italy would be without a voice in the disposition of Germany's colonies by the conference should she fail to renew her connection with that body.

So far as known, Belgium has not been asked to send a peace delegation to Versailles, the conference being action in abeyance pending the outcome of disorders in that country.

The organization of the League of Nations is to be perfected today. Standing committee will be appointed and arrangements for the first meeting of the league in Washington next October will be made.

It develops that the Finnish troops which have occupied Petrograd and Red Guards. It is announced they will march against the Finnish government forces or the White Guards.

Indignation at the seizure of the Hungarian legation at Vienna by counter-revolutionary forces, the soviet government of Hungary has demanded that German-Austrian troops be sent to arrest those involved in the reported seizure. Budapest, meanwhile is reported to be in a panic over the menace to the city through the near approach of Czech, Serbian and Rumanian troops, there being no longer even a semblance of order.

TAX RELIEF ARE TAKEN UP AGAIN

State Legislature Will Resume Session Monday
Night After Three Weeks
Recess.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, May 5.—Prohibition enforcement legislation, financial relief for city and the $49,000,000 general appropriation bill will be the chief work for members of the general assembly when they reconvene this evening after a three weeks recess to finish the work of the session. Senate Leader Whittemore says he expects to see work in shape for recess next Sunday until next November or December. Many legislators believe however, it will be impossible to finish the present work in a week's time.

It is understood that Republican leaders have not yet decided whether they will attempt to pass the cities financial relief bill which Governor Cox vetoed or whether they will have a joint taxation committee form a new measure which will meet the governor's approval. It is understood that house minority leader E. J. Hopple of Cleveland, may introduce a cities financial relief bill embodying the governor's views. He had said he had ready for introduction had the original measure failed of passage.

FIRE DAMAGES U. S. AIRPLANES

Big Ships Being Prepared

Scorched by Monday
Blaze.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, May 5.—Fire at the naval air station at Rockaway Beach today damaged the naval seaplanes NC-1 and NC-4 which were to start tomorrow on the first leg of the trans-Atlantic flight. The wings of the NC-1 were completely destroyed and this airplane may be unable to attempt the ocean cruise. It was believed that the NC-4 could be repaired in time for the "jump off."

The ship which Commander John H. Towers in charge of the expedition declared was accidental, started from an electric spark which ignited gasoline on the NC-1. The flames enveloped the wings and spread to those of the NC-4, which occupied the same hangar. Air station employees extinguished the fire after slight damage had been done to the NC-4.

Commander Towers announced that the start for New Foundland where the trans-Atlantic flight is scheduled to be the first leg of the trans-Atlantic flight, permitting with the NC-2, very likely with the NC-4 and possibly with the NC-1.

ONE MORE JOB.

Because of Licking county's strong war work organization the Victory loan "Went over" very quickly in this county. In many counties however the soldiers for the Victory loan report that the money came harder this time than on previous drives, though the terms were so much more favorable. Great numbers of people gave more or less plausible excuses. They told all kinds of hard luck stories. Their money was all tied up in business, or they hadn't finished paying for their old bonds, or cost of living is so high, and all that.

Last fall if the people had taken that attitude, it would have greatly encouraged the German people and would have prolonged the war. In so far as that spirit now exists, the results are far less serious. But they are important in this way, that they reflect a general spirit on the part of great numbers of people. This spirit is the disposition to make excuses when it comes to taking their share of the community burdens.

It is quite a problem how to get at the many people of that type, and enlarge their hearts and their spirits of co-operation. They injure themselves more than anyone else, but they hurt the progress of any town.

So far as that attitude exists, the good causes of a whole community are going to languish and its advance will be retarded. Such folks announce themselves to their neighbors as ungenerous people, whose thoughts are concentrated on themselves and their own problems.

People can't go through life maintaining that attitude, and expect they are going to create many ties of friendship. They will not leave much sense of loss when they have gone. It is a law of life that one must give of himself, and give until he feels it, in order to win friendship. "He who saveth his life shall lose it" is as vitally true as ever.

Licking has made a perfect record to date, having oversubscribed its share of every loan, last year's stamp quota and the war chest but to wind up with a 100 per cent record there is one job that must be finished. Licking county will not rank 100 per cent until its share of the 1919 issue of war savings stamps is taken. Last year the people of this county bought $1,500,000 worth of stamps. There remains of this year's issue about $750,000 to sell.

AUTOMOBILE MANNERS.

The people who write etiquette books have not so far got out any code of automobile manners. But perhaps in these hurried times people do not read etiquette books any more. But anyway there are certain basic principles of good manners that should be applied to new developments of modern life.

The use of the automobile has had the effect to upset certain people's ideas of what constitutes mannerly conduct. In ordinary life these people may be very courteous. But when they get out on the road, they seem obsessed with the fear that someone will get ahead of them, or get away from them some precedence to which they are entitled.

If they seem a shade closer to a corner than a car coming from the entering street, they will rush ahead to claim the right to go ahead first. Frequently they misjudge the distance or speed and an accident results.

In their home life these same people would probably be very scrupulous to raise when a lady enters the room, and they would always insist on passing through a door last. But that spirit seems gone when they get out at a steering wheel. They blow their crossing, as a notice to everyone to wait until they get by. It is of course easier for the pedestrian to stop and start than for a big motor, drivers who come down through a street slowly do not have to ask everyone to yield for them.

These remarks do not apply to the jostling of drivers, who carry out on the road the same spirit of courtesy that they exercise in their homes. But it does fit a lot of people who ought to know better, and who do not realize how horrid an appearance they are making. If they could understand how objectionable they are made by their bad manners, their pride would compel an instant change of attitude.

The Wilsons have had a car load of gifts presented them in France, and the pictures of the White House don't look as if there was much room under the eaves of the attic either.

Some people who usually move May 1 aren't doing so this year because they can't pay the mover, and they can't stay where they are because they can't pay the landlord.

The man who takes his German belt to raise plants in lacks the discriminating sense of fitness of the man who utilizes it as a cuspidor.

Formerly the school children used to go out May 1 to pick spring flowers, but in these days they wait until fruit is ripe.

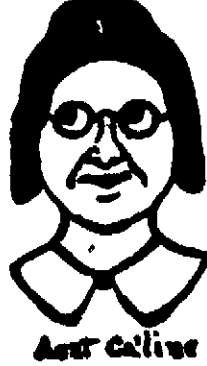

Items about the chaotic Russians are now sensibly referred by some newspapers to the nut editor.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

Henry Clews, New York financier, says in his weekly review:

"We are now approaching the final stage of peace negotiations when hitches and delays should cause no surprise. It must be remembered that in order to make any progress the toughest problems were put off till the end, and the way of least resistance naturally prevailed in the early parleys. While Italy will probably compromise, it is in her power to cause considerable delay and irritation. Germany may balk at the drastic peace terms which will be imposed upon her, though her mission is inevitable. The only hope for a rapid settlement depends upon a realization of German statesmen that their larger and permanent interests lie in prompt acquiescence. Italy must recognize the large gains that she has made would have been impossible without allied aid, and vanquished Germany may as well submit promptly and gracefully to the inevitable. As soon as peace is signed, practically all remaining trade restrictions will disappear, and the next question to occupy diplomats will be the making of new international treaties, the war having swept away most of those existing between belligerent countries. Much difference of opinion will doubtless develop among those who seek wider international intercourse and those who desire to penalize enemy countries. The infliction of penalties will call for much wisdom and self-restraint; for it would prove unintelligent and against our own interests to name suitable indemnities and then impose conditions making payment impossible."

THE ONE OBSTACLE.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
The Italian difficulty remains the one important obstacle to the establishment of peace. The only other possibility of failure now visible is the refusal of the Germans to accept the terms dictated by the allies, and this seems remote. Were the Italian difficulty removed the democratic alignment against Germany would be solid, and Germany's hope of dissension would be obviously vain and futile.

The allies eagerly desire to welcome Italy back into their ranks. By this time Italy is probably keenly regretting her separation from the society of democracy and enlightenment and would gladly accept an opportunity to get back were there an opportunity to offer which would neither compromise Italian dignity nor menace genuine Italian interests. Such an opportunity is sure to come. It will be Italy's part to take advantage of the proper moment.

Premier Orlando's address in Rome was moderate and cautious. He did not seek to inflame popular passions or prejudices. The premier undoubtedly realizes the impossibility of the Italian position, a position in which he himself no measure responsible. It is impossible for Orlando to council capitulation, but it is wise for him, even at this juncture, to pave the way for conciliation.

Italy cannot have Fiume. Outright Italian possession of the city is quite impossible. The other nations cannot reverse their decision which has been given unconditionally and irrevocably. But Italy can have much. There may even be some arrangement of internationalization which will give Italy certain rights in Fiume but little short of actual ownership. But the consent of her allies Italy is already assured of territorial increases in excess of her ante-bellum ambitions. She is to have all former Austro-Hungarian lands inhabited by Italians, and more than that. All that is forbidden is an agrandizement which would exclude the peoples of northern Yugoslavia from the sea.

It makes no difference whether the "peace overtures" come from Rome or from Paris. There must be a client of the difference. It is vitally important for Italy. It is very important for all the nations that are concerned in the establishment of just and lasting peace. Imperialism and rampant jingoism have gone far toward blinding Italy beyond the pale. They cannot go much further. The common sense of the Italian people and the wisdom of Italian statesmen of the Orlando type will rescue the nation from the disaster of isolation and will preserve unbroken the alignment of the embattled democracies that won the triumph over injustice and despotism.

REPUBLICAN FAVORITE.

(New York Times.)
A newspaper in Fort Wayne, Ind., has been conducting a straw vote among its readers to find out how public sentiment runs in that state on the subject of presidential candidates. It is perhaps not surprising to find that Vice President Marshall leads on the Democratic side, as he is an Indiana man. On the Republican side, although various Indianians, Goodrich, New, and Watson, figured in the balloting, the most popular candidate is General Leonard Wood, who is so far from being an Indiana man that he comes from New Hampshire, a state which has not had a president since Franklin Pierce was elected in 1852.

The Wood movement was started in Denver not long ago, and all over New England leagues in favor of his nomination are being formed. Though born in the east and supported by the east, he seems to be regarded as his friend Theodore Roosevelt was always regarded as a western candidate, and an eastern one. His sympathies are progressive and western, and the west seems to have taken charge of his political fortunes.

Does she give a day?" she says. Well," says Ben "she's a-givin' me a quart a day now," says he. "An' how much of that do you sell?" says Miz Dudd. "Well," says Ben "we sell a quart a day to ten people," he says.

The Price of Peace.
It is possible too much to expect, but the peace confab ought to do something toward eliminating from the future dictionaries such words as "baleful," "pneumatic," and some others we might mention.—Los Angeles Times.

Well, if we're to have any real peace it would at least seem to be necessary to provide that these words should not be overworked.

Ain't It the Truth!
A hustler fortune always reaps. And he has lots of luck; The fear of overworking keeps Most of us in the rack.
—Luke McLuke.

It is a cinch that this is so. Then let's get up and dust. For it is better far, you know, To wear out than to rust.

Did You Know?
That the hair of the Cashmere goat is about eighteen inches long? Unlike that of the Angora goat, it is not curled but straight. The finest Cashmere goat-hair is imported from Tibet into Cashmere and is there manufactured into shawls.

Harding's boom seems to have been stillborn, as it was in 1916. Senator Harding is a man of pleasant personality, but his nomination would certainly mean a split in which the Progressives of the west would play some such part as they did in 1912, not so dangerous perhaps, because there would be only one Theodore Roosevelt and he is dead, but a good deal more than the Republican party would care to encounter.

Gifford Pinchot was kind enough to include the name of Senator Leonard Wood in the list of names for which he is a little too early for Mr. Lenroot. Some years will have to go by before people can forget his vote on the Gore-McLemore resolution. Senator Borah voted for William Jennings Bryan in 1896, and since then he has been an unpardonable sin, it will still take a few years to pardon it. Governor Lowden of Illinois is an unimpeachable candidate, but he is still too local and too easily classified by the contemptuous name of "favorite."

There remain Mr. Hughes and Senator Johnson. It is curious that Mr. Hughes, like Mr. Taft, did not figure in the Indiana straw vote, and if there is anything that the last election taught us it is that the most likely to be taken into consideration. We mean especially the far west, and it may be that Mr. Hughes is more popular in the Rocky mountains and points west than he is in Indiana. As for Mr. Johnson, we don't very much if he has helped himself by his course in congress. The tendency will be toward the nomination of a man who is neither extremely radical nor extremely conservative. That would exclude Mr. Johnson.

LENINE'S ECONOMICS.

(Philadelphia Record)
In government Lenin is a savage. In his idea of economies he is a saint. He is described by a correspondent who has interviewed as a devoted reader of the works of Confucius, particularly impressed with the ideas of the Chinese sage in regard to agriculture. Confucius, we believe, died a good many years ago. In his own time and place he may have been an eminent farmer, but there are more recent treatises on agriculture—Virgil's Georgics, for example, and some notes by George Washington, not to speak of more technical and professional works. But can anybody outside of an asylum imagine a man in the position of dictator of a nation, bent on the task of reformation about farming?

Lenin's interest in agriculture is so great that he turns from Confucius and suspends the principles of communism to employ mechanical experts at high salaries as he says to make agricultural implements. He excuses this deviation from the true highway of communism by saying it is temporary, to cover a transition period. But he does not explain how communism or anarchy is going to lead to the success of agricultural implements so that the methods of capitalism can be dropped.

Money will be of no use in a communized world, he explains, for in such a world labor only will buy things. He is printing paper rubles as fast as he can in order to make them worthless. But the communist paradise cannot be realized till it is universal; he reflects with satisfaction that all other nations are printing paper money very fast, so that the goal he aims for seems to him in sight. His finance minister, Zinovieff, adds that American, English and French paper money can be easily counterfeited.

But after all the paper money in the world has become worthless by reputation, will he have done anything to impair the purchasing power of real money, of coin? And if coin could be abolished, has he made any progress toward the destruction of the capitalist system? He has made a great deal for which men will give far more of labor or commodities than for gold? His ideas of money are limited to irredeemable paper, which is an adequate measure of the value of the irredeemable ideas.

Blockade for Bolshevism.
If Bolshevism is to be accounted the enemy of civilization it certainly deserves no help from the defenders of civilization. The economic blockade was a sound measure of defense against the Prussian autocrat when that autocracy attempted world conquest, why is it not equally sound measure of defense against Bolshevism, which is frankly attempting the same thing by force in Russia.

propaganda in other countries? From the viewpoint of humanity, would it not be better to hasten the end of the Bolshevik "terror," by maintaining such a blockade as was legitimate and effective in Germany's case, than to prolong the miseries of Bolshevist misrule and its open threat against us all, by supplying the Bolshevik forces with the essential munitions of food?—New Orleans Picayune.

The London Pact and Fiume.
The Treaty of London of 1915, in which Britain and France agreed to allow Italy Istria and the Dalmatian coast, did not allot Fiume to her. This, it seems, was exclusively reserved for the use of Austrian Slavs. Italy grabbed possession of Fiume when the Austrian collapse came, and because it has a large Italian population, claims it, notwithstanding that it is the port of Bohemia, Hungary, Jugo-Slavia, etc. Italy is intent, in fact, on shutting the Austrian Slavs out of the Adriatic, no matter what the consequence.—Philadelphia Record.

NEW VITALITY FOR THE NERVES

The most active tonic treatment is recommended in nervous disorders, including some forms of partial paralysis. No sufferer need despair because a particular treatment does not give relief. Often the nerves are starved and in such diseases as functional paralysis the desired result is secured by building up the blood so that the undernourished nerves are revitalized.

"I suffered for six months from a form of partial paralysis," says Mr. Robert Corey, of No. 38 Collier street, Bathington, N. Y., "and during a part of that time I was unable to walk. When I would try to use my limbs I would fall down. I was very weak and had severe headaches. My stomach was also out of order.

"I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the newspaper and after I had taken one box I felt so much better and stronger that I was encouraged to keep on with the treatment. I have improved wonderfully. My headaches have entirely disappeared and my stomach is all right again. I have received more benefit from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills than from all the other medicine I have taken and I am glad to recommend them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain the elements necessary to make new blood and, as the nerves get their nourishment from the blood, have been found invaluable in a wide range of diseases of the blood and nerves, such as rheumatism, after-effects of the grip and fever, neuralgia and nervous debility.

Your own druggist can supply you with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 70 cents per box; six boxes $2.50. Write for a free booklet on nervous disorders.

THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Is Prepared For Woman's Use.

A visit to the laboratory where this successful remedy is made impresses even the casual looker-on with the reliability, accuracy, skill and cleanliness which attends the making of this great medicine for woman's ills.

Over 350,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually and all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their natural juices and medicinal substances are at their best.

The most successful solvents are used to extract the medicinal properties from these herbs.

Every utensil and tank that comes in contact with the medicine is sterilized and as a final precaution in cleanliness the medicine is pasteurized and sealed in sterile bottles.

It is the wonderful combination of roots and herbs, together with the skill and care used in its preparation which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.

The letters from women who have been restored to health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which we are continually publishing attest to its virtue.

GRANVILLE

Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, May 5.—The drive for the Granville public library, which was opened Friday evening with the benefit play under the auspices of the Granville Mother's club, is now under full swing, and results seem to be satisfactory.

At least the board will be able to pay expenses for another year, and it is hoped that certain cherished plans for the children may also be carried out with the funds raised at this time.

First on the list of $10 subscribers appear the names of H. D. Ashbrook, A. E. Nichol, President C. W. Chamberlain, W. A. Holmes, Bunyan Spencer, E. C. Roberts, H. W. Deming, the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church, and Miss Mary Monroe, who made their pledges before the campaign began.

Since that time several of the business men of progressive ideas have subscribed $10 each, accompanied by words of encouragement as valuable, almost as the money. Perry brothers, George Stuart, S. E. Morrow & Son, Postmaster John Geach, C. E. Slack, Granville Service Garage, Winter Pencil club, W. W. French, Burton Case, F. H. Buxton, E. E. Hopkins, T. M. Kier, Rev. C. E. Stanton, Judge J. M. Swans and Mrs. Graves, West Maple.

Said one of the businessmen when approached for a liberal subscription: "Well, I had thought I could not give another dollar just now—cash is so numerous—but, I feel as if we cannot afford to neglect this opportunity. I'd rather do without something else and give at least $10." Said another: "I am too busy to use the library, but I may need it sometime."

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sheppard, who returned from France last week with a signal corps unit of the 30th Division, is in Granville visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Edith Perry, who has and his discharge from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Owen and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sheppard of Grand Rapids, Mich., motored to Granville Tuesday, the former as guest of their aunt, Miss Anna Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard of their sister, Miss Eva Robinson on the Newark road.

Female clothing workers in the mills located in Vineland, N. J., have agreed on new terms with the employers which give them an increase of $2 per week.

The Granville war mothers will meet this evening in their rooms at 7 o'clock.

WILL HOLD SPEED TRIALS MAY 27TH

Only 33 Cars Out of 43 Entered Will Be Permitted To Start In Indianapolis Races.

Indianapolis, May 5.—Only thirty-three contestants out of the forty-three nominated for the Indianapolis 500-mile Liberty Sweepstakes, May 31, will be permitted to start in the contest, an American Automobile Association rule that limits the number of cars in any series to one for every four hundred feet of track preventing the start of more than that number.

The trials will be held at the Indianapolis speedway on May 27th to determine the final field that will face the barrier for the big Hoosier classic. Each contestant will be given three opportunities to show his speed, in a single circuit of the 1.2 mile track, and the fastest thirty-three will survive the best lap out of the three counting the final standing. No entrant who can not show a speed better than eighty miles an hour will be permitted to start, however, whether he survives under the above conditions or not.

Starting positions for the contest will be awarded of the speed shown by contestants in their time trials, the fastest car starting in first position, next the pole, and the rest following in order. Ralph DePalma, at the wheel of his 12-cylinder Packard, rules as the probable American favorite for No. 1 position. His main rival is probably the fastest American car in the race and in a short sprint it is considered almost unbeatable.

Among the Europeans, it is thought probable that the "Sailor" team, composed of Thomas, Guyot, Babler and Wagner, stands the best chance of emerging from the conflict of the speed trials with first honors. The Ballot cars are the Indianapolis 500-mile race.

Other likely incumbents of first position are Goux, at the wheel of a Renault; Chevrolet, in a Frontenac; and Cooper, at the wheel of a Stutz. Any one of these is capable of circling the Indianapolis track in record time, and may choose to let himself out to the limit in the time trials.

Turning to the other side of the picture, after the time trials have been run there will remain to be determined who, after weeks and months of strenuous preparation for the greatest of all racing classics, will see their hopes to rank among the elite of the racing world dashed in the dust without the satisfaction of even having faced the starter, or gone roaring around the track in the thrilling first round that is the inaugural of all Indianapolis 500-mile events.

RICKENBACHER WILL REFEREE AUTO RACES

Indianapolis, May 5.—Captain Eddie Rickenbacher, known to fame as America's "Ace of Aces," but to auto racing fans as "Eddie Rick," has been selected to referee the Indianapolis 500-mile Liberty Sweepstakes, May 31, inaugurating the post-war revival of automobile racing in America. Though "Rick" has not filed his formal acceptance of the honor as yet, this is regarded as practically certain by those who know his deep and abiding love for the most popular racing sport, and are aware of the close friendship that exists between himself and the Indianapolis speedway management.

Captain Rickenbacher is the automobile industry's war hero, and also one of the best known drivers of balanced team, and although most of the events were closely contested the result of the meet was never in doubt. Perrone made some excellent records in the shot and discus, while Rodgers starred in their first. Denison showed well, considering it was her first meet.

The summary:
100-yard dash—Rodgers (M.), won; Stoll (M.), second. Time, 10 1/2 seconds.
Pole vault—Donnelly (D.), won; Carlin (M.), second. Height, 9 feet, 11 inches.
440-yard dash—Kink (M.), won; Jonte (M.), second. Time, 54 seconds.
120-yard high hurdles—Rodgers (M.), won; Kull (D.), second. Time, 17 4/5 seconds.
Shotput—Perrone (M.), won; Kull (D.), second. Distance, 40 1/2 feet.
Discus—Perrone (M.), won; Kull (D.), second. Distance, 112 feet, 4 1/2 inches.
One-mile run—Wright (D.), won; Davis (M.), second. Time, 3 minutes, 2 1/2 seconds.
Broad jump—Rodgers (M.), won; Hodges (D.), second. Distance, 26 feet, 6 inches.
Half mile run—Kink (M.), won; Dawson (D.), second. Time, 2 minutes, 7 seconds.
Javelin throw—Cramer (M.), won; Kull (D.), second. Distance, 133 feet, 6 1/2 inches.

220-yard dash—Stoll (M.), won; Feight (D.), second. Time, 24 seconds.
High jump—Cramer (M.), won; Blans (M.), second. Height, 5 feet, 4 inches.

BOWSER WILL NOT MEET LONDAS THIS SEASON

Paul Bowser, middleweight champion wrestler, stated today that his match Wednesday evening at the Auditorium with Frank Miller would positively be his last appearance at the local theatre this spring and therefore he would not accept the challenge by Jim Londas, light-heavyweight of Canton.

NEWARK BOYS WIN FROM ZANESVILLE

In a hotly-contested game Sunday at Burton park, Zanesville, St. Francis academic nine defeated St. Nicholas 10-3. "Shorty" Dolan's hitting was remarkable, making three hits out of four times at the bat. The score was 3 to 2 in favor of Newark in the eighth, when Zanesville's batter for revenge began knocking the ball around, having bases loaded and only one man out, defeat seemed imminent, but Calabrese, shortstop, with his quick reflexes and ability, resulting in Zanesville's defeat. The next game will be played Decoration day at White field. The batteries for Newark were Callahan and Angerer. The score: St. Francis 10; St. Nicholas 3. R. H. Newark 10; Zanesville 3. 000100020-3-2

The value of corn resulted today from continued wet weather which made both hauling and planting difficult, if not impossible. Opening figures, which ranged from 1 1/2 to 2 1/4¢ higher, with July 1929 to 2 1/2¢ and September 1 1/2 to 2 1/4¢, were followed by moderate additional gains and by rallies from the ensuing setback. Oats were stronger with corn. After opening 1 1/2 to 1 3/4¢ up, including July at 25 1/2¢ to 72 1/2¢, the market remained comparatively firm.

stock exchange, the movement showing a downward trend, however, the extraordinary activity of the past fortnight. Tobacco specialties were again prominent. American Snuff rising two points and Lorillard 7. Gains of 1 to 2 points were made by Royal Dutch, Texas company, Harco, Linde, Inspiration, copper, American Zinc, writing paper preferred, the latter rising to the new record of 156 1/4. St. Louis and San Francisco preferred featured the rails at a 3 point advance.

Tomorrow's holiday probably accounted for the intermittent profit-taking and consequent irregularity of prices during the forenoon. Dealings expanded vividly after the first half hour, but the sluggishness of United States Steel and 1 to 2 point reactions in several of last week's favorite issues were more than balanced by the strength elsewhere. Canadian Pacific rose 4 points and other Railway issues to 1 1/2. Oil added to early gains with food shares and Utilities, notably Texas company, American Sugar, Beet Sugar, California Packing, Brooklyn Transit, Consolidated and Ohio Gas.

Rev. Lewis P. Franklin conducted the

Express company, died Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock in Indianapolis. Mr.

which position he held until 1910. At that time he was sent to Chicago as company and remained there until the consolidation of the express companies under government control. In July,
